Brochure is attached.

There is no shuttle facilities. You need to visit by your own.

We can visit the whole park by our car

If you have 1.5 hours - Drive to the Windows Section and see some of the park's largest arches. (Add one-half hour to stroll beneath either North Window or Double Arch.). OR Drive to the Delicate Arch Viewpoint and see the world's most famous arch, a mile distant. Stop at Wolfe Ranch on your way back and imagine what it would have been like to homestead this relatively barren area in the late 1800s.

If you have 3 hours -Do both of the above.

If you have 4.5 hours - Drive all of the paved park roads, spending ten minutes at each viewpoint, and be sure to visit the Windows Section, Wolfe Ranch and the Delicate Arch Viewpoint.

Best Hikes

A dozen trails cover 50 miles (80 kilometers) in the park. The Queen's Garden Trail is an easy one- to two-hour walk to the naturally sculpted Queen Victoria hoodoo. Add to the Queen's Garden Trail the Navajo Loop and you'll have what Ranger Dan Ng calls "the best three-mile [five-kilometer] hike in the world." For those craving something a bit more strenuous, combine that loop with the Peek-A-Boo Trail for a tough but rewarding 8.6-mile (13.8-kilometer) journey that features close-up views of the Wall of Windows, the Cathedral, and the Three Wise Men formation.
